Seminar – Day of the Endangered Lawyer (Azerbaijan)

The Day of the Endangered Lawyer 2021 focuses on Azerbaijan. This seminar addresses some of the challenges faced by lawyers there in practising their profession. In particular, this seminar will address: (i) the legal profession in Azerbaijan and access to justice, (ii) admission to the Bar, (iii) disciplinary proceedings, including disbarment, (iv) lawyers' right to freedom of expression, and (v) cases of Azeri lawyers before the European Court of Human Rights.

Speakers:

- Shahla Humbatova (lawyer, Azerbaijan)
- Emin Abbasov (lawyer, Azerbaijan)
- Jessica Gavron (legal director, European Human Rights Advocacy Centre)

Moderated by: Dr. Marina Brillman (international human rights adviser, Law Society of England and Wales)

Thursday 21 January 2021: 2.00-3.30 pm (UK time)
